THE RITZ-CARLTON ORLANDO, GRANDE LAKES ANNOUNCES KNIFE & SPOON, A SIGNATURE RESTAURANT BY ACCLAIMED CHEF JOHN TESAR

Orlando, Fla. – December 13, 2019 – The Ritz-Carlton Orlando, Grande Lakes announces new restaurant, Knife & Spoon, a new signature steak & seafood restaurant conceived and led by award-winning Chef John Tesar. Set to begin welcoming guests in spring 2020, Knife & Spoon will add to the luxury resort’s diverse collection of food & beverage outlets.

Celebrating the bounty of Florida on land and at sea, Knife & Spoon will merge Chef Tesar’s cutting-edge meat and seafood techniques. The restaurant will offer an array of steakhouse favorites while emphasizing local seafood dishes, showcasing the abundance of the region.

“We’re very excited to welcome Chef Tesar to central Florida and to add Knife & Spoon to our roster of incredible dining options. Innovation and the delivery of excellence in service across our food and beverage offerings has long been a universal focus point for Grande Lakes Orlando. We are certain that Knife & Spoon will become a favorite among both locals and visitors to Orlando, reaffirming the luxury resort as the pinnacle of destination dining,” said Jon McGavin, Area General Manager of The Ritz-Carlton and JW Marriott Orlando, Grande Lakes.

Bringing a multitude of talent, a long record of success, and widespread recognition to The Ritz-Carlton Orlando, Chef Tesar is a four-time James Beard “Best of Southwest Chef” semifinalist, a two-time contestant on Bravo’s “Top Chef,” and the winner of the inaugural season of Food Network’s “Extreme Chef”.

Specializing in modern American cuisine prepared with authentic European techniques, Chef Tesar began his career at Club Pierre in Westhampton, NY following classical French training at Paris’ La Varenne Ecole de Cuisine. After cooking in some of New York City’s most successful kitchens, Chef Tesar moved to Las Vegas to work alongside Chef Rick Moonen. In 2006, Chef Tesar took the helm of Rosewood Mansion on Turtle Creek in Dallas, where he earned two five-star reviews. The authority on both seafood and steak, Chef Tesar is the genius behind menus at several restaurants in Dallas and has expanded with new concepts on the West Coast.

Fall room rates start at $400 at The Ritz-Carlton and $275 at JW Marriott. For more information or to make reservations, please call 866-435-7627, or visit GrandeLakes.com.
